MAYOR LINCOLN WELCOMES SENIOR POLICY ADVISOR TO HIS STAFF

STOCKTON, CA – Mayor Kevin Lincoln announced today that Marla Livengood will be joining his staff as his Senior Policy Advisor. Mayor Lincoln opened the position for application through an HR hiring process on August 8th, with a close date of September 7th. Among the applications received, a group of finalists from across the nation were interviewed. Marla came in at the top of the candidate pool with over 20 years of experience in local, state, and federal policy work.

Marla is a born and raised Stocktonian who has served Stockton and San Joaquin County in various capacities including Senior Policy Director for a private consulting firm, Regulatory Affairs Manager for the California Strawberry Commission, Legislative Affairs Manager for San Joaquin Regional Transit District, Congressional Legislative Director for a U.S. Representative, and has served as a local government advocate and consultant. Marla shares “I have always loved this community and am thankful to have been able to serve our city and county in so many ways. As someone who has a deep appreciation for Stockton and sees our potential, I am excited to assist Mayor Lincoln and work with the Council in pursuing the vision of the city we all love.”

Mayor Lincoln shares “Marla brings decades of policy experience to the Mayor’s Office, is a Stockton native, and she understands our city. I am pleased to have her joining our team and look forward to the work ahead of us.”

Marla will begin her role on Monday, November 1st, 2021.
